

ALTE 58th Conference Day Friday 11th November 2022

The less widely spoken languages from the perspective of plurilingualism

All sessions will take place in the Karolinum Building, Ovocný trh 3, Prague 1.

All sessions are in CET (Central European Time). Please check your timezone, here.

Time	Session	Venue
8:30 – 9:00	Registration	Reception
9:00 – 9:10	Welcome	Blue Lecture Hall
9:10 – 9:30	Opening address	Blue Lecture Hall
9:30 – 10:10	Waldemar Martyniuk, Jagellonian University in Kraków, Poland (Less widely used) Languages: learning, teaching, and assessment (Title TBC)	Blue Lecture Hall
10:10 – 10:50	Fauve De Backer and Piet van Avermaet, Ghent University, Belgium Policy and practical challenges of multilingual teaching, learning and assessment	Blue Lecture Hall
10:50 – 11:20	Coffee	Entrance Hall C16/Basement
11:20 – 12:20	Round table Language learning and assessment in the plurilingual society: challenges for less widely and more widely spoken languages Moderator: Martina Hulešová	Blue Lecture Hall
12:20 – 13:50	Lunch	Entrance Hall C16/Basement
13:50 – 14:20	Martina Hulešová, Charles University, Czech Republic Local approaches to common problems: meeting Minimum Standards in the Czech Language Certificate Exams	Blue Lecture Hall

14:20 – 14:50	Anne Gallagher, ALTE Individual Expert Member, Ireland Languages in Competition: attempts to level the playing field	Blue Lecture Hall
14:50 – 15:00	Closing remarks	Blue Lecture Hall
15:00 – 15:30	Coffee	Entrance Hall C16/Basement
15:30 – 17:00	Parallel Workshops
	Parallel workshop 1 – Dina Vilcu, BBU-RCI, Romania Less widely tested languages – meeting the challenges of practicality	Blue Lecture Hall
	Parallel workshop 2 – Jane Lloyd, ALTE Validation Unit, UK Statistical analysis possibilities for small numbers	Hall of Patriots
	Parallel workshop 3 – Fauve De Backer and Piet van Avermaet, Ghent University, Belgium Tensions in language assessment policies and practices. Flanders as a case	Small Conference Room
	Parallel workshop 4 (in Czech) – Kateřina Vodičková, and Eva Složilová, Charles University, Czech Republic Assessing Czech as L2/FL or assessing plurilingualism? / Čeština jako druhý/cizí jazyk, nebo plurilingvismus: Co hodnotíme?	Large Conference room